Sad News

In recent weeks we have lost two valued, well respected friends and fellow bowlers.

Jimmy Henderson

Esther Watson

Our thoughts and sympathies go out to their families at this particularly difficult time.

The non-bowling edition!

It isn't that long since the last newsletter but an awful lot has changed. We've gone from planning our personal bowls calendar to working out what we'll do without bowls!

We're down but not out! Closed but not finished, just taking a break.

Our bowling friends are still our friends, even when we're not bowling. Do your best to keep in touch with your mates, check in on them to make sure they are OK. We're a resilient bunch and we'll bounce back from this so stay safe, look after yourself and your mates.

Some of you might recall the popular Spot the Ball competition. This is a similar approach. Work out where you think the jack is in the picture and keep a note of it using the column letter and number of the row, e.g. A1.

Thanks to Tony Lumb for creating the picture.

Result revealed in the next newsletter.

Mandarin Bowls!?!

What are you doing?

We are all dealing with a bit more time on our hands. There are some interesting stories circulating about how people are filling their time. There is an innovative, or desperate, soul in Dunbar Bowling Club in Vancouver who has tried bench top bowling with mandarins and cherry tomatoes – check it out here

Send me pictures of your bowling innovations and I will share them – send to

And this is definitely worth a second look – beautiful bowls!

Name that song

Remember these lyrics?

- Clue: 1965

Asked a girl what she wanted to be
She said baby, "Can't you see
I wanna be famous, a star of the screen
But you can do something in between"

- Clue: 1972

I get this feeling I may know you
As a lover and a friend.
But this voice keeps whispering in my other ear,
Tells me I may never see you again.
